INTRODUCTION

Housing associations are under growing pressure to balance social purpose with financial performance. Operating as not-for-profit organisations with charitable roots, many now run at significant scale, delivering housing, care and neighbourhood services across multiple regions.

Growth through merger or acquisition is common, bringing inherited processes, multiple payrolls, different pension arrangements and inconsistent ways of working. Alongside frontline colleagues, many organisations support complex workforces including trades teams, customer services, corporate roles and even care staff, often employed on varied contracts and working patterns, with overtime and 24-hour working commonplace.

At the same time, boards and executive teams must demonstrate value for money, strong governance and fair pay. Expectations around workforce reporting continue to rise, including gender pay gap reporting today and increasing scrutiny around diversity, equality and inclusion.

Legacy, finance-led systems and manual HR/payroll processes can make it difficult to maintain visibility over workforce costs, manage risk or give employees timely, accurate information.

With over 60 years of payroll expertise and deep experience supporting complex, regulated organisations, Zellis helps housing associations deliver with confidence. By bringing HR, pay and workforce data together in one intelligent, cloud-based platform, we give leadership teams the clarity they need to protect margins, support their people and focus on delivering for residents.

We're saving a huge amount of time and everything is more accurate. Managers can now focus on more critical tasks instead of chasing paperwork.

WHY ZELLIS?

Housing associations need solutions that reflect how they really operate, that are flexible enough to support growth and change, but robust enough to cope with complexity and intelligent enough to provide meaningful, real-time insight across the organisation.

Zellis combines deep payroll expertise with next-generation HR technology to help housing organisations reduce administration, prevent errors and maintain confidence that pay will always be right. That confidence matters. Not just for payroll and HR teams, but for leaders who know workforce issues quickly become reputational, financial and regulatory risks.

Rather than relying on rigid, finance-led systems, outdated spreadsheets or disconnected tools, Zellis brings HR, pay and workforce data together in one intelligent platform. This creates consistency across business units, improves data quality and gives decision-makers clear sight of what's really happening across their workforce.

With our AI and real-time insights platform, you get:

THE FULL PLATFORM

The Zellis HR and Pay platform brings together four powerful elements, shaped to support the realities of housing associations.

Real-time pay

Payroll runs continuously, with issues flagged as they arise. Intelligent payslips provide clarity and reassurance for employees.

Financial wellbeing

Tools such as earned wage access and savings features help colleagues manage cost-of-living pressures, supporting trust, retention and engagement.

Zellis Intelligence Platform

Our data hub keeps HR and pay seamlessly connected. Automated workflows reduce manual effort, while real-time insight highlights risks and trends across the organisation.

HR and people management

HR and pay work together in one secure platform. Absence management, onboarding, contract changes and audit trails are all managed in one place, keeping data accurate and aligned.

Confidently compliant

Security and compliance are built in, with ISO 27001 and Cyber Essentials accreditation ensuring sensitive data remains protected.

Rather than have discrepancies between paper, manager and system, there is one source of information with Zellis.

MANAGED HR AND PAY SERVICES

Running HR and payroll across a housing association can place significant strain on small, highly stretched teams. Multiple payrolls, pension schemes, contract types and legacy processes all increase operational risk, particularly when internal capacity is limited.

Zellis Managed HR and Pay Services are designed to remove that burden. With over 60 years of payroll expertise and dedicated Centres of Excellence in the UK and Ireland, our specialists work as an extension of your team, providing reassurance, resilience and consistency.

Rather than simply taking tasks off your hands, we provide confidence that critical processes are being managed by people who understand complexity, compliance and the consequences of getting it wrong.

Our managed services support housing organisations to:

- Reduce operational risk and dependency on individual roles
- Maintain accuracy and compliance during periods of change
- Free internal capacity for strategic, people-focused work
- Provide assurance to senior leaders and boards

Through our secure customer portal, you gain clear visibility at every stage of the payroll cycle:

- Collaboration - upload data securely and see checks and validation in progress.
- Transparency - track payroll status in real time, with clear checkpoints and controls.
- Reporting - access intelligent reports, understand readiness and sign off with confidence.

For housing associations where payroll failure is not an option, Zellis managed services provide stability, continuity and peace of mind. Every colleague is paid accurately, on time, every time, without placing additional pressure on already stretched teams.

YOUR IMPLEMENTATION JOURNEY

Rolling out new HR and pay systems is not just a technology change. It's a confidence exercise.

Housing organisations are complex by nature, and implementation rarely follows a straight line. That's why Zellis focuses on transparency, collaboration and reassurance from the very start.

Our approach is designed to give your teams clear visibility of what's happening, why decisions are being made and how the system is being shaped around your organisation.

WORKING SIDE-BY-SIDE

From HR and payroll to IT and senior leadership, we involve the right people at the right time. There are no surprises and no assumptions about how you operate.

BUILDING LASTING CONFIDENCE

Through workshops, training and playback sessions, we focus on knowledge transfer. Your teams understand not just how the system works, but how to get the most from it long after go-live.

PROVEN, PRACTICAL RESOURCES

We bring templates, guidance and accelerators developed through decades of experience supporting complex organisations. These reduce duplication, support consistency and help teams move forward with confidence.

FLEXIBLE BY DESIGN

Every housing association is different. At Zellis, we adapt delivery to match your priorities, whether that means a phased rollout, piloting within specific services, or aligning implementation with wider organisational change.

The result is a controlled, well-understood transition that builds confidence, reduces risk and sets your organisation up for long-term success.
